

Runners Needed to Honor Arkansas's Fallen Heroes

Join the 15th Annual Arkansas Run for the Fallen

Honor the Arkansas heroes who have given their lives in service on active duty since September 11, 2001.

This 155-mile memorial trail begins in Ozark, Arkansas, and concludes at the Military Entrance Processing Station in Little Rock. At every mile, the run team stops to present an American Flag and a biographical card in tribute to a fallen service member, ensuring their sacrifice is never forgotten.

Event Details:

- When: March 13-15, 2026
- What: A 155-mile run to honor fallen service members.
- How it Works: We need a team of dedicated runners to cover the entire distance. Each runner signs up for a 6-mile segment. With enough participants, these segments can be run by teams of two or more.
- Pace Requirement: To qualify, you must be able to maintain a 10-minute per-mile pace.
