

SURVIVING in numbers

Tell your anonymous story through numbers

Create your poster in bldg. 1240 (new SAPR location) in a private classroom, room 131, M-F between 0800-1600. Call 987-7272 for after hours access. You're also welcome to make a poster at home, and have someone else drop it off.

Your anonymous poster will initially be displayed during the CLEAR challenge 25 April @ WarFit Pavillion, and then hung in the SAPR office.

of people I asked for help before official report: 3
of people that cared: 1 (my mom)
of peers/leadership/family that supported him: 30+ of people that I subjected my exposed body to for trial purposes: 20+ of days Court Martial lasted: 7
of months sentenced to prison: 18
of months served in prison: 9
of days I think about some aspect of the trauma: EVERYDAY.
of years in therapy: 1.5 and counting of times he threatened to kill me: 2
of times he strangled me: 15+
of times I gave into sex with my husband so he wouldn't become violent again: Too many to count.
Sex is not consensual if you are afraid.
Spousal rape exists.

Years in Marine Corps: 5
Marines who raped me: 3
Rapes: 6
Times I was forced to work with my rapists: too many Marines who sexually harassed me: 12
Suicide Attempts: 8
Psychiatric ward stays: 3
Superiors who called me a whore: 7
Times I was publicly mocked: too many Demotions stemming from my assaults: 1
Nights I wake up screaming: too many Nights I cannot sleep: too many Panic attacks: too many Detectives I told: 8
Rapists prosecuted: 0
Plea bargains given to protect rapists' reputation: 1

Age when I was first raped: 10
Weeks that he assaulted me nearly daily: 6
Years before I told anyone: 2.5
Months where I thought about it every day: 6
Days he spent in jail: 30
Years before I called myself a SURVIVOR: 4
Years since I last blamed myself for what HE DID to me: 9
Times I've told my story publicly: 3
Friends I've gained working to end sexual violence: 25+

POCs:

SSgt Olivia Pujol

987-5502

MSgt Richelle Moen

987-7119

<https://survivinginnnumbers.org>